Revenge is in the air as the ghosts of the farmer and his family appear and attack the convicts. But were the farmer and family always ghosts?

The convicts soon discover other ghosts who look like MEDICAL EXPERIMENTS GONE WRONG. The house is filled with crazy ghouls who have open bloody wounds and metal braces holding their faces and bodies together.

It turns out the old farmhouse was a mental institution for the criminally insane back in the 1800's. The old farmer and his wife are the ghosts of the Doctor/Mad Scientist and Nurse who would perform lobotomies and other bizarre experiments on?
